Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. If you are worried, or spot signs of abuse, notice changes in behaviours or are concerned about conduct of an individual around or towards a child or an adult at risk, you have a duty to report it.

All concerns must also be reported following the escalation procedure below:

Signs to look for:

- Withdrawn
- Worried/Distressed/Upset
- Lack of participation
- Change in Usual Behaviours
- Covering up their body
- Marks/bruising
- Aggression/Violence/Outbursts
- Coercive/Controlling/Bullying Behaviours
- Extravagance – money, phones, trainers

Categories of Abuse:

- Physical
- Emotional
- Sexual
- Neglect
