Consent Form for Livestreaming Recreational Cricket Matches

Livestreaming may be used at recreational cricket matches to allow players, parents, families, and supporters to enjoy the game remotely. Livestreaming can be a positive way to showcase cricket, but it must be done safely and in line with England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) guidance.

We will ensure that:

- Livestreams are managed in line with ECB safeguarding standards
- Footage focuses on the cricket match and participants' involvement in play
- No personal or sensitive information (e.g. addresses, contact details) is included
- All data is processed in accordance with GDPR and the LCF Privacy Policy
